

To Director of Tashkent Branch of Plekhanov Russian University of Economics
Professor Abdurakhmanov K.Kh.

Dear Kalandar Khodjaevich,

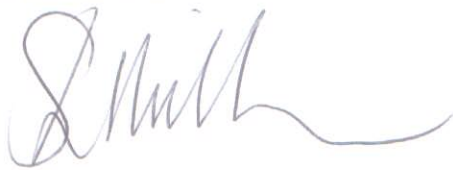

Anglo-Continental School of English sincerely congratulates its partner in Uzbekistan, their professors, teaching staff and students of Tashkent Branch of Plekhanov Russian University of Economics on your 20th anniversary!

We wish you great success in education and training students, developing scientific researches and international relations.

The agreement of cooperation between Anglo-Continental School of English and Tashkent Branch of Plekhanov Russian University of Economics was signed on January 30, in 2013. Last year, over 30 students and teachers were trained at Anglo-Continental and received Anglo-Continental certificate of studies. It was a pleasure to host your students and we congratulate them on their diligence, aspiration for learning English and good behavior.

We hope that our collaboration will develop in the future and we will be glad to welcome you back to Anglo-Continental.

We once again congratulate you on your anniversary and wish you much success for the future.

With Best Wishes,
Siobhan Miller
Business Development Manager
